

Miss Sonia Shearer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Shearer, selected as queen of the Humane Educational Society parade in Washington.
Copyright, Harrie & Ewing

Above— Henry Price in his London studio completing his model of the prize winning war memorial for Annan, Scotland. It shows a Scottish Borderer in marching kit.

Above—New portrait of Mrs. R. T. Wilson, a popular hostess in New York society. Aime Dupont Studios.

Above—Miss Nancy Gordon Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Gordon Jones of Washington, D. C., whose marriage to William G. Barne- well of New York took place last Thursday.
Cline inst.

Above — Recent portrait of Miss Megan Lloyd George, who, it is rumored, may become the wife of Sir Philip Sassoon. International.

At left— W. H. Horn, open golf champion of South Africa, who has arrived here with the cup won by Ted Ray last year.
Edwin Levick.

At right—A baby zebra at the great Zoological Park in the Bronx is the latest addition to Dr. Hornaday's collection, and the tamest.
International.

Miss Virginia de Haven, one of this season's debutantes, soon to sail for Europe.
Aime Dupont Studios.

Dr. Wirth, the new Chancellor of Germany, who accepted the Allies' ultimatum about reparations. He was Minister of Finance under the former Chancellor and maintained Germany could pay.
Gilliams.